Our Education Broadens With Current Events

Above—Britain's contribution to our way of life was the Beatles, who sang their way into OUR TIME and started a fashion trend.

Right—Demonstrations and pickets for the major social issues of our youth became commonplace as we grew older. Even visiting dignitaries to our state (South Bend) were the objects of some of the demonstrations.

OUR TIME is that of the German rendezvous, the ornate night, the Beatles and world affairs. As young people today, our viewpoints have changed to a broader, yet more personal light through our increasing awareness of our surroundings from the war in Viet Nam to high school athletic competition.

Every day we are affected indirectly by what is happening around us in our ever changing time. Current events play an important role in the broadest appreciation of our education by providing interesting debate material and thoughtful discussions outside the classroom as well as in. As models of tomorrow we are becoming better prepared to accept our future responsibilities through education.

Above—French exchange student Danielle Tintinger, while learning about our national customs from students Jean Greene and Marcio Melton, also made Hobart students aware of the world around them.

Left—World unrest, like the war in Viet Nam, become everyday reality as many of our friends were called into action.

Heavily laden with books, Linda Johnston heads for the library before the bell rings.

Right—Joyce Eaton has a hard time trying to find a textbook down at the bottom of her locker between classes.

Our School Life Creates Increasing Demands

Inside and out Hobart boasts 1200 sophomores, juniors, and Seniors, busily rushing to their next classes during the five minutes allowed between each 60-minute period; trying to get some last minute cramming into their 40-minute lunch period; or hurrying to lockers after the last bell at 3:15.

HHS life thrives on lively conversation and the latest fads as well as heavy armloads of books and final exams. Every day brings a fresh and more demanding challenge as students fill the classrooms to learn about the wide and varied skills that must be mastered in forming the "Great Society" of our generation.

Above—Some students even find time to exchange a little gossip while between classes. Others with classes at the opposite end of the building are not as fortunate.

Our Activities Relieve Everyday Pressures

Above—Getting an idea about a future occupation are Seniors Sherry Woods and Linda Bayless. The girls make use of the information displayed in the library.

Right—Anytime is the right time to discuss life in general. Red and Mary Davies and Diana Bartholemew break for a few minutes after helping the political parties decorate the street in front of school.

Monotony of daily routine and plans are broken by extracurricular activities and diverse events. Weekends with off steam on the football field, no two weeks are held on the dance floor. Seniors are expected to become individual personalities in three years of inebriant high.

Leadership, scholarship, sportsmanship, and friendship are generated by the various organizations and activities revolving around our school life. Therefore this is the time to get things done, a time of big decisions which will influence tomorrow's world. How we use it will determine the future of our community, our state, our country and our world. With this understanding we can truly say that this is OUR TIME.

Competitive spirit runs high as two girls go up for a jump ball during the GAA In-Out games. The annual battle between the juniors and Seniors is enough to relieve tension until the next year's contest.

ACADEMICS

Hobart students correlated their studies with life outside the classroom through field trips, mock trials, developmental reading courses, and timely debates. Chosen students visited Beatty Memorial Hospital to further their understanding of psychology. One of the third-year Spanish students was chosen by Indiana University to spend the summer of 1966 in Mexico learning about the customs, schools, and people there. Members of the journalism classes learned about modern techniques and machinery for high school newspaper and yearbook production at a seminar at Valparaiso University. Hobart's increasing student body necessitated six new teachers and a permanent secretary in the guidance department this year. The greater importance of education was realized and evidenced throughout the 1965-1966 year at Hobart High.

Above—Superintendent of Hobart City Schools Mr. Kenneth E. Norris stands along side members of the Board of School Trustees—Mr. Gerald W. Sheppard; Mr. Harry E. Garmon, treasurer; Mr. Donald D. Spore, secretary; Mr. Richard R. Block, vice-president; and Mrs. Ruth Briggs, president of the board.

Night—Surrounding Hobart City School's Book-keeper Mrs. Thelma Walsh are secretaries Mrs. Pat Schoon and Miss Barbara Rosta.

Administration Prepares for NCA Evaluation

During the school year members of the high school administration worked in conjunction with the members of the Board of School Trustees, Superintendent of Schools and the faculty in making preliminary preparations for the North Central Association's evaluation of Hobart Senior High School.

NCA committees will evaluate the high school during the week of November 15-19. Through the school year numerous teacher's meetings were held in preparation for this activity.

The committee will study the philosophy of the school and its objectives—both physical and theoretical.

Coordinating the activities of the high school are Principal Harold Moody and Vice-principal Dorothy Thompson.

Mr. Moody takes charge of school finances, as well as the school curriculum and the daily class schedule. Miss Thompson is the coordinator of all school activities and extra-curricular programs.

Vice-Principal of Hobart Senior High School is Miss Dorothy Thompson.

Left—Mr. Eugene W. Wise, director of pupil personnel, and Mr. Charles R. Bigler, administrative assistant, served vital functions for the Hobart City Schools.

Staffs Provide Assistance in School Activities

Taking care of attendance records and working to keep students in line keeps the Deans' offices buzzing. In his last year as Dean of Boys, Mr. Russ Deal, handles most disciplinary problems that may arise.

Mrs. Flora Cox, Dean of Girls, keeps her eye on the ever-changing hemlines of the female teens of OUR TIME.

Guidance Director Marion Bailey, aided by Mrs. Rosalind Howell and Wayne Collins, assists students with problems pertaining to future employment and college entrance. Making recommendations for students and graduates to colleges, armed forces and industry rounds out the business of the guidance office.

Members of the cafeteria staff plan and prepare lunches for two hours, five days a week; while maintenance staff keeps the school grounds in good shape and the internal physical functions of the building working.

Serving as Secretaries to the Principal are Mrs. Ruth Rogers and Mrs. Francis Sillery, financial secretary.

Above—Cafeteria staff includes Mrs. Mary Smith; Mrs. Millie Dunkelbarger, manager; Mrs. Glenda Ensign and Mrs. Sally Jenks.

Right—Maintenance staff includes Mr. Charles Kaiser, Mr. Charles Snow, Mr. Walker Kaiser, Mrs. Vivian Walden, Mr. Tom Horst, Mrs. Melba Kory and Mr. William Kneifel.

Above—Hobart High's Guidance Department consists of Mrs. Luella Glenn, secretary; Mr. Marion Bailey, guidance director; Mr. Wayne Collins, counselor; and Mrs. Rosalind Howell, counselor.

Left—Deans of Boys and Girls are Mr. Russ Deal and Mrs. Flora Cox, respectively.

Math Training Essential for Future Leaders

Training in math, which is all important in the world today, the world of the moon rocket and the mechanical heart, begins early at Hobart High.

Starting with general math while in the freshman year, a whole range of mathematical experiences faces the math student. Geometry follows in the sophomore year. Then, for those continuing in the math field, trigonometry, advanced algebra, and Senior math are offered.

For the business men of OUR TIME, a course in Business Arithmetic is offered.

Perhaps the men who will put the first man on the moon, or maybe the man who develops the cure for cancer is training to be a mathematician within the math department of Hobart High.

Left—Dotry Mladak explains how to plot a straight line and an ellipse on a complex graph to Shirley Katunich in second year algebra.

Above—John Snyder works a sector problem after constructing the problem on the board.

Right—One of the main instruments for constructing geometry problems, a compass, is being used by Yvonne Tyre in her Geometry class.

After determining the height of the flagpole in front of the school, Daniel Taylor explains how to find the height of various other points with the transit.

Science Requires Concentrated Student Effort

Men from earth going into space proves the need for scientists in the future. The science courses available at Hobart High give the students the opportunity to make advancements in that area.

Beginning with first-year biology as sophomores, students learn about the simpler forms of life. Advanced classes are provided for those who wish to continue in this pursuit.

Although many diverge onto different roads of study, some students remain steadfast along this path of science.

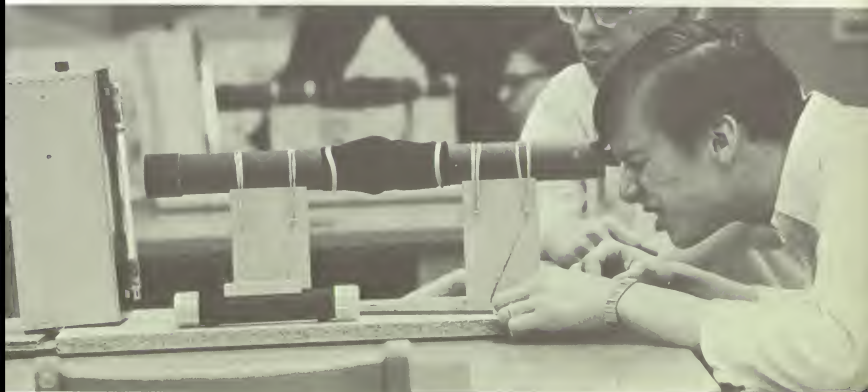

Math-Science Curriculum includes chemistry and advanced chemistry. This opens up new fields of interest into medical technology, pharmacy, and medicine.

Another career opening is in engineering, through the study of Physics, which is the study of matter and energy.

Right—Beginning biology student, Dave Janott, pins down the sides of a starfish before dissecting it.

Below—Physics student, John Harvey, looks through a spectrometer to study light rays, in Mr. Sendarek's class.

HHS Language Arts Offer Course Diversity

Opaque projectors were added to the English Department's equipment. This enables the teacher to present material to students in an illustrative manner.

Dramatics classes are taught the proper stage manner, along with the mechanics of stage production. Each member of the class takes a turn in directing a class project. Will these be the actors of OUR TIME?

Teaching students the why's, what's, and where's of clear writing, and the mechanics of putting out a newspaper and yearbook is the duty of beginning journalism classes. Advanced classes put together and produce the HO-HI LIFE newspaper, and the MEMORIES, yearbook.

Two new courses, The Novel and World Literature, will be added next year for those interested in the working parts of the novel or those who are interested in learning the literature of other lands.

Right—Dove Janatt and Linda Bristol take advantage of the school library as they read two of the periodicals displayed in the library.

Below—Doug Dunning and Larry Butz pick opposite sides to Mark Gutzler and Darryl Dusenbury during a debate in Mr. Weise's speech class.

Below right—Developmental Reading machines are used once a week by students like Rich Kannawski during English. The purpose is to improve reading accuracy and speed.

First year journalism students Sally Shirey, Sheree Benson, and Dawn Briney make thumbnail sketches on miniature layout sheets in their study of yearbook procedures.

Right—Girl and Boy Staters in 1966 include Sally Moench, Debby Blank, Marcia Weiland, Red Davies, Doug Fitzgerald, Mike Thammel, Dave Walker, Phil Stafford, and Phil Heller.

For right—Film strips in government class help students understand our country's law-making processes.

Study of History Enhances Student Knowledge

Eighty filmstrips were received this year to be used as visual stimulants. In addition to the filmstrips, an overhead projector was used this year in the Social Studies department.

Releasing over 300 balloons, for the study of air currents, was one activity of the social studies department. Led by Mr. Darrell Blink, the Physical Geography classes released the balloons in front of and behind the school.

Required subjects begin with Civics or World History in freshman year, U. S. History in junior year, and Government and economics in Senior year.

Electives are Consumer Economics, Afro-Asian History, Latin American History, and Psychology-Sociology.

Altogether, they help to give a strong feeling of our heritage so we will be influenced to improve OUR TIME.

Right—Senor Neff and Spanish students listen to Spanish conversations via the language lab. Bulletin board shows that not all of language study is work.

Below—Mrs. Friedrich is not scolding, but graphically emphasizing a point in conversational French.

Language Study Aids Understanding of Cultures

Hobart High offers four foreign languages to its students. French, Spanish, German, and Latin are the courses available. Language labs used in French, German, and Spanish aid study.

Purposes of the Language Arts Department, apart from giving the students a working use of the language, is to teach them about the cultural background of France, Germany, Spain and Mexico, and of Ancient Rome.

For the first time, next year, eight semesters (four years) of all languages will be offered. This is one of the new ideas instituted by the administration and the heads of the Language Arts Department, Mr. Black and Mr. Neff.

Top—Third-year Latin students practice drills at the end of each chapter for skill in writing and reading Latin.

Above—Second-year German class takes a test to show their newly learned skills in grammar will not be soon forgotten.

Business Classes Train Students for Office Work

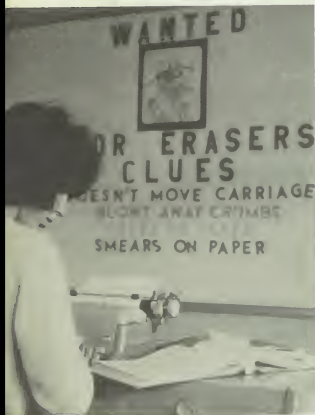

Preparing Hobart's young women for jobs as secretaries in the offices of the future is the HHS Business Department.

From beginning typing classes through notehand, shorthand, and bookkeeping, the businesswomen (and men) of tomorrow are taught all the facets of the modern office. They learn how to operate office machines, and receive an idea of "office life."

Many boys also take the beginning typing and notehand courses. They learn skills which will be valuable to them in taking notes in the lecture halls of their colleges and typing the many reports they will need in both high school and college.

Those courses available under the Commerce curriculum are typing, shorthand, business English, business law, notehand, bookkeeping, office practice, and personal typing.

Top—To calculate a problem in Office Practice class, Senior Marilyn Hicks uses one of the adding machines.

Above—Do's and don'ts of typewriting are expressed by colorful posters on bulletin boards in Mrs. Harder's first year typing classes.

For left—Laura Popaditch, first year typing student, follows outline in her typing book while doing a manuscript on etiquette.

Above—Timed writings to improve speed and accuracy play an integral part in first year typing. Mrs. Wise gives her third hour class a five-minute typing exercise.

Various Student Talents Revealed by Fine Arts

Art classes, A Cappella and Treble choirs, Band, and Crafts are all classified as Fine Arts courses.

All forms of specialized talent are given the chance to be shown in the department of Fine Arts. Whether it be a fine singing voice, a way with a musical instrument, or even a talented pair of hands, Hobart's Fine Arts classes help to train these people for a place in the ranks of the specially skilled.

A Christmas window design and maintaining a showcase in the east hall kept the Art students quite busy.

Concert Band brought home its 37th consecutive first place in state under the baton of Director Alvin Rogers.

In its second year at Hobart, the crafts classes continue to incite creativity and design in those who will make our world a better place to live.

Right—Larry Stover engraves a design onto a piece of leather before molding it into a wallet for one of his Craft projects.

Below—Members of the Treble Choir rehearse a medley of songs to keep in practice for convas later in the school year.

Below—Wayne Thamason, Roymand Freeland and Lee Piske uses a vacuum tube volt meter to test the efficiency of a power supply.

Technical Arts Offers Nine Sub-Curriculumms

Technical Arts play an important part in the world today. The cars we drive, the water we drink, and even Batman come to us because of this all important field.

To insure their continuation in the future, Hobart's technical arts department offers nine sub-curriculumms.

Planning and drafting helps those endowed with creativity and design.

Crafts, woodworking and metal shop help to advance those who are adept at using their hands.

Power Mechanics classes teaches the young men of Hobart to be the mechanics that will keep the autos of tomorrow running.

Electricity classes train the men who will light the homes and lives of those during our time.

World news of tomorrow may very well be brought to us in the newspapers that might have been printed by the same boys who today print the HO-HI LIFE.

Left—George Wheeler wears a shield as he prepares to shape a piece of steel.

Below—Feeding the press, Ken Dance prepares enrollment cards for the 1966-'67 school year, while in the print shop.

Gym Classes Provide Exercise, Youth Fitness

In accordance with state laws, and in cooperation with the President's Council on Youth Fitness, all Hobart sophomores are required to take one year of physical education, unless a doctor's excuse is provided.

Junior and Senior boys are enrolled in gym classes only if they haven't previously taken the required year.

In the girls case, however, an additional year may be taken if the girl is a gym assistant—helping Miss Reisinger in the classroom by giving demonstrations and by instructing the classes in her absence.

Under the guidance of Miss Reisinger, the girls learn to play basketball, soccer and volleyball. They also learn skills in tumbling and baseball.

Track mentor Frank Kurth and head basketball coach Jim Johnston are the boys' P. E. instructors. The activities for the boys include tumbling, trampoline, whiffle ball, basketball, weight lifting, tennis and ping pong.

A new, official size, balance bar was added this year to the gym equipment. Used extensively by the girls, it aids them in gaining grace and balance.

Along with physical skills, attitude and citizenship play heavily in grading.

Right—Volleyball becomes strenuous for sophomore Jean Wesley as she jumps to get the ball and return it to the opposing side.

Below—Sus Granlund, timed by Miss Reisinger, runs the 220-yard dash in preparation for the regional track meet of River Forest High School.

Left—While the rest of the boys play whiffle ball, some watch and wait their turn at bat.

ACTIVITIES

Our everyday world is filled with activities. HHS students strived to keep up with this pace in making this year's A Capella musical comedy, "The Mikado," a success with Hobart residents. On a more serious note, representatives from the armed services talked to Seniors about careers open today in the various branches. A wide variety of student interests were stimulated by such events as concerts, plays, convocations, and dances. The switch of Student Council mayor-clerk elections from fall to the preceding spring was an example of the many improvements made this year. Activities and decisions students made were certainly a mark of Our Time.

Right—Roberta Halvarson and Phil Stafford of the Purple Party ride in a car driven by Dan Treadway. Both were victorious.

Below—Mary Hinkle and Dave Walker lead the parade as gold candidates.

Stafford, Halvorson Chosen in Spring Elections

Five weeks of campaigning and work resulted in a Purple Party victory. Student Council officers for next year are Phil Stafford, Mayor, and Roberta Halvorson, Clerk.

This year is the first time that Hobart High has held its Student Council election in the Spring, with the voting days, May 2 and 3.

Reason for the change of date of election is the new Student Council Constitution, which enables the Mayor and Clerk to assume their responsibilities at the beginning of the school year.

Dave Walker and Mary Hinkle, Gold Party candidates, and Phil Stafford and Roberta Halvorson, Purple party candidates, spoke on "Qualities of a Good Leader," at the Government convocation, April 25.

Highlighting the campaigning and election was the customary white washing of 8th Street. The Purple and Gold Parade was held April 29, during the 4B lunch hour.

Below—Mary Salisbury and Don Toering congratulate Ralph Sisco on his election of Mayor for the 1965-66 school year.

Sally Moench tells the student body why she wants to be elected Clerk-Treasurer for 1965-66, during a convocation for the last fall campaign in Hobart history.

Junior Linda Hamilton Chosen to Reign Over

Adding spice to any football season is Homecoming and 1966 was no exception.

Although the Lew Wallace Hornets did win the game it didn't dampen the spirit as Junior Linda Hamilton walked off the field at halftime, the 1966 Homecoming queen.

"Bomb 'em" the junior entry in the float competition, won over the Senior and sophomore entries. All class participation in this contest was renewed this year.

Beginning with the bonfire in Brickie Bowl, continuing on through the pep session and the game itself the '66 Homecoming celebration was the epitome of spirit.

Right—Onlookers waited patiently for the fireman to light the fire of the '65 Homecoming bonfire.

Below—Homecoming queen and her escort for 1965 were Linda McLennon, Pat Boaten, Queen Linda Hamilton and Andreo Belusciok. Two of the escorts were Dove Delich and John Marks.

Dramatics Classes Expand Year's Play Agenda

Below—Dione Smith discusses her daughter Doisey's chance of marriage in another one-act production, "Comin Round the Mountain."

Providing entertainment and a wide variety of talent was the central idea of the Hobart High dramatics class presentations.

Mystery and adventure was the theme of the fall play "Lost Horizon" presented by the dramatics students and Mr. Roland Ralph, dramatics class teacher.

Since there were so many students enrolled in classes this year two casts were organized for "Lost Horizon", which was held in the cafeteria, November 19 and 20.

This year amateur thespians put on two plays to entertain the sophomores. "To Burn A Witch" and "The Devil's Cuspidor" were enacted in the cafeteria February 3, during the fifth hour.

Variety was spotlighted when the dramatics classes presented four-one act plays, April 29 and 30.

"Suite Rehearsal," "The Man In The Bowler Hat," "The Lottery," "Comin' Around The Mountain" were selected to provide variety for the audience and it gave every dramatics student a chance to display his talent.

Ambitious A Capella Sings, Acts "The Mikado"

Singing and dramatic talents were displayed in one of the most ambitious productions attempted at Hobart, when the A Capella under the direction of Mr. Roland Ralph, presented Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Mikado," April 15 and 16.

Tim Gleason took the role of the Mikado, while Nanki Poo, was portrayed by Terry Davis. Ko Ko, Lord High Executioner, was played by Dan Liechty, with Rich Raymond as Lord High Everything Else.

Katisha was played by Jamie Enrico, Sharon Mummery portrayed Piti Sing, while Lord Pish Tish was enacted by Bill Bodnar.

Below—Katisha reveals reasons why she wants to marry Nanki Poo, who has fled to prevent their marriage.

Victory Over Pirates Completes Homecoming

Above—Debbie Blank adjusted her crown to make sure it wasn't all a dream.

Right—Cecila Hardgrove, escorted by Super Sprit, was announced as a Homecoming queen candidate at the pep session.

Far right—Oahs and ahhs came from the capacity crowd at the Basketball Homecoming game when action in the game picked up.

Homecoming '66, highlighted by the 69-59 victory over the Pirates, was made complete by the crowning of Junior Debbie Blank as Homecoming queen.

Candidates from the other two classes were Senior Diana Bartholomew and Sophomore Cathy Wilmouth.

Junior John Meiss was Miss Blank's escort, while the others were escorted by Arlan Piepho and Randy Murray, respectively.

Along with the coronation, the game was witnessed by the largest crowd ever to fill the gymnasium since its construction in 1958.

Happy rooters danced away their cares to the music provided by the Expressmen at the dance after the game.

Right—Anxiously, Debbie Blank and Red Dovies waited for the team.

Far right—Confidently, John Marks led the team through the victory frame.

Right—Indiana State University Band, directed by Mr. George M. Graesch, plays a medley from "West Side Story."

Various Convos Encourage Student Interests

Espionage, communism and juvenile delinquency were some of the wide-range of subjects covered in convocations by guest speakers at Hobart Senior High School.

Dr. Kurt Singer, a foremost author of today on the topic of spies and espionage, presented a speech on sabotage and treason and a discussion of his two of forty-six books, "Spy Omnibus," and "Spies for Democracy."

Gary's City Judge Richard J. Kaplan presented a speech on communism and controversial issue, the burning of draft cards.

Rubber pipes, brass knuckles, switch blades, a knife, scissors, and a whiskey bottle were all implements brought along by Whiting's Judge William Obermiller when he addressed the student body on teenage morals and behavior.

Hobart City Officials Given Day of Relaxation

Rapping gavels, sorting mail, and walking pavements were some of the sights and sounds experienced by Seniors participating in Government Day, April 20.

Neal Nelson replaced Mayor Lilburn Titus, Dawn Smeltzer portrayed Clerk Oolah Evans, and Becky Larson took over as assistant clerk.

Position of City Judge was filled by John Hodsden and Ralph Sisco undertook the responsibilities of City Attorney. Acting as Hobart councilmen were Mary Davies, Jerry Marler, Bonnie Empy, Robin Pouler, Don Reiger, Midge Routes, Danielle Tintinger, and Stewart Scofield.

Rich Anderson, as fire chief, was assisted by Robin Hood, Jerry Pendleton, Arlan Piepho, and Dale Walsh, firemen.

Janet Frankhauser portrayed the Postmaster, whose responsibilities were to collect and distribute the mail.

Highlighting the day was the luncheon given at the Issac Walton Cabin for the participants of Government Day.

"Time Machine" Sets Stage for Yohannaire

Hobart's teens had a chance to show off their talents as the "Time Machine" traveled into the past, present, and future, March 10-12.

In response to an "SOS" from the Student Council two Senior boys, Tom Cook and Marty Chappo, volunteered to build the Time Machine which was to decorate the stage.

General chairman for the show were Seniors Rich Anderson and Craig Buford. The teens efforts were directed by Mrs. Allwardt, Miss Sparschu, and Mr. Ralph. Sponsors from the Student Council were Miss Thompson and Mr. Bailey.

Choreography for the chorus line was done by Junior Jeanne Greene with help from Mrs. Webber of Mitchell Dance Studio.

Seniors Assume Teacher Successes, Problems

One-hundred-eighty-two Senior students gained a new view point of school and education as they participated in Education Day activities, March 3.

After a day of observation the week before, Seniors were ready to replace teachers and administrators in many of the classrooms and offices of schools in the Hobart system.

Seniors found there is quite a difference between being part of a class and being the instructor in that same class. New responsibilities, ideas, and opportunities faced Seniors as they learned what it is like to be a part of the vast world of education.

Students earned a glimpse of what it is like to be a guide, a companion, a counselor, and an influence on growing minds.

Students and Seniors were commended by Mr. Moody and members of the faculty on the way in which Education Day activities were conducted. The success of this activity makes it possible to be continued in future years.

Southern Hospitality Provides Theme for Prom

Hints of spring and a bit of Southern charm helped to set the mood for the Junior-Senior Prom, "Gone With the Wind," which was held at Hotel Gary, May 7.

Reigning as King and Queen of the prom were Ed Schwuchow and Mary Davies, who were crowned during the dance.

Members of the court were Shirley Kasonovich and Ivor Coons; Danille Tintinger and Stu Scafield.

Colored pictures were taken by Paul Vincent Studios for each couple, who wished pictures at the prom, while Johnny Nowland and his band provided the music for the evening.

A good time was had by all at the after prom party held at San Remos Restaurant.

Hosting the entertainment at the after-prom party held at San Remos Restaurant was WLS's Peter Fugitive, Ray Van Steen. The party began at 12:00 and lasted until 3:30.

Franklin President Addresses 305 HHS Seniors

Commencement and Baccalaureate were long awaited and memorable occasions for 305 graduating Seniors of the Class of 1966.

Dr. Wesley H. Haines, president of Franklin College, was the featured speaker at Commencement exercises, May 25, for one of Hobart's smallest graduating classes in recent years.

Dr. Haines' speech was only surpassed by the presentation of diplomas—an event Seniors had been waiting for, for four years.

Principal Harold Moody and Vice-principal Dorothy Thompson were assisted by school trustees Mr. Harry Gormong and Mrs. Ruth Briggs when presentation time arrived.

Rev. John Strebig of St. Bridget's Catholic Church issued a reverent farewell to members of the graduating class at Baccalaureate services, May 22.

SPORTS

Our Time presents heavy pressures and rough competition as members of the cross-country, baseball, track, and golf teams will probably agree, having completed their first seasons as part of the Northwest Conference this year. Joining them next year will be two new teams, tennis and wrestling, along with football and basketball. Teamwork was a keynote for the baseball team in winning first in the Eastern Division. Coach Fay Trammel's golfers added a second championship. Russell Deal left a 6-3-1 record for his final season as HHS football coach. A truly outstanding Indiana coach, Mr. Deal has seen 114 wins, 49 losses, and 6 ties since 1948. As long as competition prevails, sports will always be a part of Our Time.

Participating in the Northwest Conference for the first year in cross country, Coach Frank Kurth's harriers tied with Hammand High for fourth place.

With three returning lettermen, the Brickies totaled an overall record of 16-5, and an 11-4 conference mark. Hobart participated in three invitational meets, placing second twice and sixth.

In the frash-saph section, the Brickie reserve team tied Valparaisa for first place with a sparkling 17-1 won-loss record. The leading scarer for the reserves was Ran Knurson with 144 points, followed by Warren Pike with 104.

This past season, Hobart's varsity placed second in both the Hobart sectional and the 25th annual Hobart Invitational. The Brickies concluded their season by placing seventh at the IHSA Regional at the Elk's Country Club at LaPorte.

Jerry Wajihoski, the high scorer for the varsity squad, will be lost to next year's team because of graduation. This was also the last season for seniors Lloyd Trumbo, Dan Canway, and Ken Zaladz.

Forming the nucleus of the 1966 harrier team will be Bob Marine, Tim Sargent, Bob Schnick, and several promising reserves.

for Hobart

In his 17th season as head coach, Brickie mentor Russ Deal and the Hobart varsity posted a 6-3-1 season record.

This was the final year as an independent on the gridiron for Hobart, as it will join the Northwest Conference next fall. The Brickies registered a 2-2 mark against teams currently competing in the NWC.

One of those losses was to Lew Wallace, which spoiled the Hobart homecoming before the largest crowd ever to witness a football game in Brickie Bow.

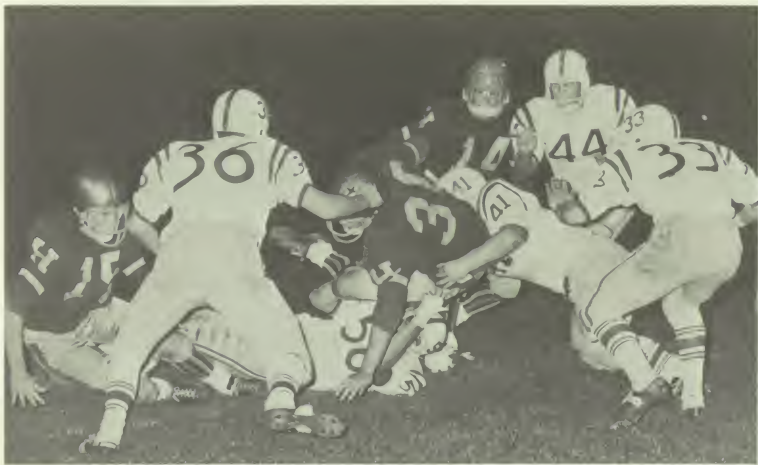

One of the highlights of the season was the selection of tackle Bob Kostbade and halfback Mike Deal to the all-state squad. Mike led the Brickies in rushing, while Bob was a standout on the offensive line all year. Both Deal and Kostbade will be lost to next year's team due to graduation along with 17 other seniors.

Cagers' 8-12 Record Best in Five Years

In his second year as Brickie head coach, Jim Johnston led the varsity to an 8-12 record overall.

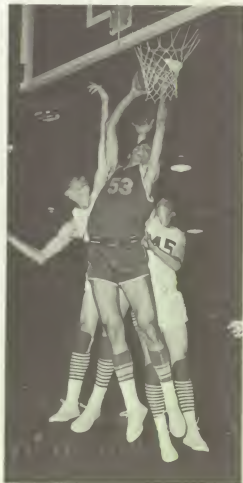

Returning from the 1964-65 squad, five lettermen furnished the backbone for the varsity. Seniors Mike Deal and Dave Mattix led the Brickies in scoring with 226 and 216 points, respectively; and Mattix was chosen for the all-tourney team in the East Chicago sectional.

After dropping their first two games, one of them a narrow 65-64 loss to East Gary, Hobart rolled to five consecutive victories. Two of these wins came in the Dyer tourney, where the Brickies defeated Lowell and Dyer to capture first place. The final contest of the year found Hobart edged by a rugged East Chicago Roosevelt team in the sectional, 72-63.

Forming the nucleus of next year's team will be peppery guard John Marks, and forwards Dave Walker and Ralph Krulik. Joining these three will be several promising reserves who led the junior varsity to a 5-10 season mark.

School Spirit

What is a successful athletic program without cheerleaders? The varsity and reserve cheerleaders filled a vital role throughout the year by boosting team morale and school spirit.

Performing at football and basketball games is only the beginning of the cheerleader's activities. It is also their duty to keep the students under control at athletic contests, make game posters, and plan pep sessions.

Hobart makes certain that its cheerleaders are the best qualified girls for the job. All girls who are interested in becoming a member of the squad must first write a paper telling why they want to be a cheerleader.

The character of the candidates is then evaluated by teachers and grades are checked. After this screening the remaining girls then try out in front of a chosen group of student and faculty judges.

Try-outs for finalists are held in front of the booster club. From this group, five girls are chosen who show the best appearance, voice, agility, and pep.

Below—Hobart's top golfers for the season, Ted Esping and Jan Sheptak, display some of the form that carried the team to the NWC crown.

In Hobart's initial performance in the Northwest Conference, the Brickies of Coach Fay Trammel bagged their first loop championship.

Brickie linksmen swept through a two month conference schedule without a blemish as they posted victories in 10 dual matches and one quadrangular.

Juniars Jan Sheptak and Ted Esping led the varsity golfers by taking medalists' honors in nine and eight matches, respectively, throughout the season.

In non-conference action, Hobart won six of nine meets to finish the season with an overall mark of 19-3. Crown Point and Gary Andreon, twice, accounted for Hobart's defeats.

In sectional shooting, Hobart's golfers teamed for 355 strokes but the production was not enough to qualify for the state meet.

The Bricks, compiling an outstanding record in dual meets, failed to impress in the larger tournaments.

At Lafayette Jefferson, Trammel's crew gained seventh place. In the Dyer meet, Hobart garnered 21st place; while at LaPorte, the Brickies combined for eighth.

Crown; Brickies Lose Playoff Series to Morton

In his last season as a varsity coach, Russ Deal and the Brickie diamondmen posted a 15-3 record overall and clinched the Eastern Division crown of the Northwest Conference in Hobart's first season in the loop.

Suffering only a loss to Lew Wallace, the Brickies won the right to meet Hammond Morton's Western Division winners in a playoff for the loop championship.

The hard-hitting Governors won the best-of-three series, 9-0, after the teams had split two contests.

Senior Craig Buford posted a 9-1 on the mound to lead the Bricks as Hobart won its first 13 games of the season. His three-hitter against Tolleston clinched the Eastern crown.

Coach Joe Barber's reserve squad did not fare as well. The young Bricks garnered a 2-6 record as pitchers Jerry Badovinac and Gary Packham recorded the victories for the reserves.

Cindermen Win Hammond, Little "5" Meets;

Two relays wins highlighted a respectable season for Coach Bill Cope and his cindermen.

While in the process of compiling a 15-5 Northwest Conference record in its first season in the loop, Hobart gained first in the Hammond Relays and Little "5" meets.

Competing in five conference quadrangulars, the Bricks totaled one win and three seconds. The meets were held as four-team affairs to make maximum use of track facilities in Hammond, East Chicago and Gary.

Varsity cindermen Tim Sargeant, two-mile run, and Bob Berg, pole vault, qualified from the Gary Sectional for Regional competition; but both boys failed to qualify for the state meet.

Hobart's frosh-soph team showed varsity promise for next season as the jayvees posted a 15-1 NWC record. The young Bricks captured their portion of the Valpo Invitational and finished second only to Hammond Clark in loop action.

Many worthwhile causes were promoted this year as HHS clubs lived up to their individual goals and purposes. Showing their interest in today's world, the Home Economics Club sold cookbooks to buy gifts for servicemen in Viet Nam and the Debuttees held a fund-raising drive for Channel 11. The New Colony Six concert, given by the American Field Service Club to raise money for their fund, gave further evidence of Hobart's awareness of current surroundings. A pen pal program was set up to give students a chance to communicate with those from schools around the world. This year six clubs gave scholarships to graduating Seniors. Organizations surely created an awareness of OUR TIME.

ORGANIZATIONS

1965 MEMORIES Receives A+ NSYA Rating

Advanced Journalism students manned their positions on the MEMORIES staff early in the fall of the school year. Since that time they have been busy compiling information, taking pictures, writing copy, and making layouts for a complete picture of the events and activities at HHS during the year.

A+ and First Class ratings were received by the 1965 MEMORIES from the National School Yearbook Association and National Scholastic Press Association, respectively.

One of the highlights of the year was the presentation a 1908 yearbook by Mrs. Dorothy Ballantyne to the school library. It was the first yearbook ever published by Hobart students, and helped give this year's book a definite volume number.

Members of the yearbook staff attended the Valparaiso Journalism Seminar held at Valparaiso University.

Top—Index editors are Gerry Massa and Jean Heard. Taking care of Activities are Vicki Romer and Linda Jackson.

Middle—Most Valuable Staffer, Cindy Hill edited the Senior section. Underclass editors are Sue Sibert, Linda Norris, and Carol Easton.

Bottom—Sports editors are Bob Chandler and David Ross. Academics editors are Pam Jones and Penny Kerhin.

Below—Advertising managers Marc Campbell and Sherry Woods and Business Manager Betty Keith begin looking over pictures for the advertising section.

Newspaper Staff Gains NSPA First Class for

Contributing to the newspaper are Feature Page Editors, Linda Boyless and Denise Nault; Headliner, Jeff Frame; and Society Page Editors, Coral Hipsher and Karen Phelps.

Above Right—Terri Curtis and Lynda Hosza are in charge of the News Bureau which wrote Hobart High's activities in both Hobart papers.

After a tedious year Editor, Marcia Meilaender and Associate Editor, Cindy Loch, smile with relief after 15 issues.

Ho-Hi Life Sports Editors are Mike Trammel, Bob Schmelter, and Dwayne Phillips.

HO-HI LIFE; Attends Sixth Valpo Seminar

Hard work, long hours, frustrating tears, and joyous outcomes are all part of a typical school day for Hobart High School journalists.

These students, many interested in entering the field of journalism, have pursued knowledge and experience through the work they have done on the HO-HI LIFE.

First semester publications of the HO-HI LIFE received a First Class rating from the National Scholastic Press Association.

Story writing, photography, and newspaper layout, among other aspects of journalism are taught to students in first year journalism classes by advisor, Mr. Mark Popovich. In the second year classes, students are given a chance to demonstrate the skills they have acquired.

Members of the newspaper staff work in conjunction with students on the Speech and Debate teams in planning and writing a weekly radio program which is broadcast on station WWCA in Gary.

Collecting and arranging ads for the HO-HI LIFE is the job of the Advertisement Managers, Kathy Knouff and Joyce Eaton, while Jan Robinson performed the duties of Business Manager.

Below—Writers for Hobart's Chamber of Commerce Radio Program, on WWCA, are Carol Easton, Terry Berg, Linda Norris, Tresa Trowbridge, and Penny Kerhin.

Right—Pausing from the job are typists Linda Johnson and Barb Usher.

Quill & Scroll, Oldest Hobart Club, Inducts Eight

Quill and Scroll, the international Society for high school journalists was organized April 10, 1926.

Since that time 9,071 public, private, and parochial schools throughout the United States and more than 40 foreign countries have been granted charters by the Society.

This national organization was founded by a group of journalism advisors who wished to reward individual achievement in journalism and allied fields.

Hobart High has held an active charter in Quill and Scroll since the spring of 1927, which makes it the oldest continuous club in school.

Membership to Quill and Scroll is open to any junior or senior student who is a member of either newspaper or yearbook staff. The student must show interest and promise in the field of journalism. He must also be in the upper third of his class in scholastic ranking.

Eight Hobart students were selected for initiation into Quill and Scroll Society by the sponsor, Mr. Popovich, in the spring.

Honor Society Rewards Service, Scholarship

Helping to make OUR TIME what it is, are the students who show through school work and extra curricular activity the qualities of character, scholarship, leadership, and service to an outstanding degree.

These students are honored by HHS by being awarded membership in the Hobart Chapter of the National Honor Society.

A pizza supper for all Honor Roll students the first nine weeks of every year is sponsored by the society and is an annual practice.

Members of the junior class who met the requirements set down by the Honor Society were inducted into the organization at the traditional Honor Convocation held in the spring.

Left—Officers of the Honor Society are Bonnie Empey, secretary; Mike Deol, vice-president; Jeff Garmong, historian; and Craig Buford, president.

Students Exhibit Leadership as Council Fosters

Advancing the general welfare of the school and creating a better understanding between the students, the faculty and the administration are the goals of the Hobart High School Student Council.

One of the outstanding accomplishments of the Student Council during the school year was the organization of Hobart's chapter of the American Field Service.

AFS was started to promote a better understanding between America and foreign countries. Last year's foreign exchange student, Dony Tintinger, came to Hobart from France. Through her presence at HHS students learned much about the customs and traditions of France.

Student Council sponsored the leadership conference, held for two days in October.

Funds earned by the Student Council through the Yohonnaire talent show and the music concert, featuring the New Colony Six, enabled the council to sponsor a scholarship.

GAA Endorses Girl's Athletic Participation;

Today, many more students have a chance to enjoy athletic events through participation than ever before. Girls have a chance to participate in sporting events through the Girls Athletic Association.

Powderpuff football and basketball games may seem a little rugged at times, but the girls still look forward to the annual competitions.

During the past two years many GAA members have taken a strong interest in gymnastics, such as tumbling and free exercise. A trip to the State Gymnastics Competition, held at Ball State University, is made annually by a selected group of girls who show promise and interest in the field of gymnastics.

Hobart girls partaking in the annual track meet held at River Forest High School came in second place in the competition against neighboring schools.

Boosters Boast Largest School Membership;

In the world we live in, winning is not always the most important thing. Good sportsmanship is what really counts. Remembering and upholding this ideal is the purpose of the Hobart High School Booster Club.

Having the largest membership of any organization in the school, students work hard to put these ideas into action at Hobart High.

Clad in booster sweatshirts and backed by the pep band, Hobart students backed the Bricks through many joyous victories and tearful defeats.

Idle days between sports activities were not wasted by the boosters. Two Homecoming celebrations and a successful "School Spirit Week" were planned and carried out by booster members.

Officers of Booster Club are Diana Bartholamew, president; Midge Rautes, secretary; Andi Belushchok, vice-president, and Linda McLennan, treasurer.

Boys' Booster Membership, "Spirit" Increases.

Boys' Booster Club was started at Hobart High School during the 63-64 school year. Since that time it has grown in membership and became one of the largest boys' clubs at HHS.

Headed by sponsors, Mr. Vidal Lopez, and Mr. Darryl Blink, the Boys' Booster stood behind the Bricks during all sporting events.

Head cheerleaders Jeff Frame, Rich Raymond, and Larry Johnston led the booster block through traditional yells and cheers.

Purchasing sweatshirts for members of the booster block was the main project of the school year for this organization. Black sweatshirts, displaying the Brickie insignia in gold, were worn during basketball season by Boys' Boosters.

Participating at many pep sessions helped to increase to popularity of the Booster Block.

Jeff Frame and Rich Raymond disguised as "Super Spirit" and Fat "Man" displayed many trying battles at pep sessions, in which "Super Spirit" always came out on top.

Right—Originated in a skit produced by the Journalism Department at a pep session, "Super Spirit," Jeff Frame, blossomed into the "spiritual leader" of the Boy's Booster Block and he received ample support from Rich Raymond, his chief assistant who was "Fat Man."

Ushers Assist Students at Convos and Games

Keeping the crowds at Hobart football games well seated; and keeping avid roundball rooters off the hardwood floor of the gym are the main duties of the Ushers Club.

For the first time this year the ushers made an appearance at all indoor functions in new sport jackets. The black jackets with the image of Yohan emblazoned on the pockets were worn to all the basketball games as well as the New Colony Six Concert. In fact, worn to all activities where crowds control was necessary.

Another new facet of the Ushers was added this year—singing of our National Anthem before the basketball games.

Under track mentor, Frank Kurth, the Ushers Club enters its sixteenth year of "fine help and co-operation" to the school.

The obligation of all members is to attend all activities where the services of the club are needed or as Mr. Kurth says—"SERVICE".

Right—Officers of the Usher's Club are Jim McDowell, president; Rich Raymond, secretary-treasurer; Mickey Dooling, vice-president.

Latin Students Celebrate at Annual Saturnalia

Friends, Romans, Countrymen, might easily have fit into the atmosphere at the Latin Club Saturnalia. Garbed in Roman clothing, members of Latin Club observed Roman customs and traditions at the annual Roman-style banquet held by members of the Latin Club.

Giving members a clearer background and understanding of Latin and Roman history are the purposes of the Latin Club.

Since 1953 this organization has steadily increased in membership. The only requirements of the members are 50 cents and attendance at meetings.

Five Hobart students were sent to the annual state meeting of Latin Clubs at Indiana University in April.

Five delegates from HHS were Dave Walker, Kathy Wilmoth, Patty Oaf, Bob Kramer, and Louis Layhew. Accompanied by sponsor, Mr. William Black, these students shared educational plans and ideas with students from all over the state.

Spanish Club Completes 16 Years of Service;

Buen Viaje! Good Journey! You are cordially invited to take a journey into the history of Spain with the Spanish Club.

Under the able direction and advisement of Senior Neff, the 'Club de Espanol' completes its sixteenth year at Hobart High School.

Along with the annual giving of a scholarship to a deserving Senior Spanish student, the club lists a fall party and a Christmas party. A Mexican-style dinner is held in the winter for all Spanish Club members.

An all-day outing at Dunes National Park was planned as the club's main Spring activity.

Sharing, along with other organizations, a week's stint in the school's Snack Bar, during both lunch hours rounds out the year's activities for the Spanish Club. "Hasta la Vista."

HHS German Students Study Culture, Customs

Increasing student knowledge and appreciation of German culture and customs are the main objectives of "Deutsche Verein," or German Club.

Headed by Miss Theresa Leptich members of the German Club enjoyed such activities during the school year as a Christmas Party, a spring picnic, and attending a German movie.

Attendance at meetings and 50 cents dues each semester enable German Club members to participate in all activities sponsored by the club during the school year.

Comic books, written completely in German were subscribed to by members of the organization to add a little humor and a change of pace to the club meetings.

Members of German Club took a field trip into Chicago where they enjoyed a dinner at Hessberg's Restaurant. Afterwards, they visited Lutz Sweet Shop. This trip enabled these students to take part in the customs and traditions of German people.

Officers of the German Club are Larry Mossey, president; Sue Gronlund, treasurer; Pat Bawman, secretary; and Doug Fitzgerald, vice-president.

Hobart Frenchmen Present Scholarship Grant

Officers for French Club are Janet Frankenhauser, secretary; Ivar Coons, president; Audrey Baling, treasurer, and Pot Hittlebaugh, vice-president.

Beginning its fourth year as an active club, the French club plans this year to give a scholarship to a worthy student of French.

The main purpose of the club is to provide a social group of young adults interested in France and its language.

Aiding the club in gaining the atmosphere of the sidewalk cafe and the Eiffel Tower was the presence of Hobart's AFS student, Dany Tintinger, a native Parisian.

The main activity of the club was a picnic in May.

An interest in French has grown in the past two years not only because of the addition of the language lab, but because of the French involvement on the world scene.

Under the able guidance of Madame Friedrich, the frenchmen of Hobart are learning to understand not only the language of the French, but also a bit of French history to help understand France's political philosophy.

Future Nurses Tour Chicago's St. Luke Hospital

Officers of FNA are Sharyn Smar, Secretary; Bonnie Ellefson, Vice-President; Marsha Lindsey, Historian; Susan Howard, Treasurer; Donno Franko, President.

Members of Future Nurses of America are girls interested in following a career of nursing or entering other medical fields.

Under the guidance of advisor, Mrs. Beveridge many important opportunities for these fields are made available to FNA members. Informative lectures and demonstrations are held at bi-monthly meetings. Activities for future weeks, and projects are also planned and discussed at these meetings.

FNA members took a field trip to the St. Luke Presbyterian Hospital in Chicago. Functions and activities of hospital organization were observed by the girls during their visit.

"Broomstick Brawl", a dance sponsored by the Future Nurses, October 29, and the annual FNA bake sale, held in February, provided funds for a scholarship presented to a Senior member of the organization.

Librarians Learn Library Science Techniques

With its silver anniversary behind, the Librarians Club continues to provide service for the students and faculty of Hobart on into its 26th year.

With Mrs. Mary Bailey at the helm, the librarians aid students and faculty in finding books for leisure reading, or references for term papers required during the year.

Dues of 50 cents per year is required for membership. This along with service to school and the club are the only requirements of the student librarians.

The purpose of the club, next to service, is acquainting the members with library techniques. Everything from the Dewey Decimal System to card catalogs must be known by the teen-age Librarians. These students learn to file books and magazines for easy and convenient access to needed sources of information.

Right—Officers of Librarian's Club are Gail Ehrenfeld, President; Pam Ehrenfeld, Treasurer; Diane Smith, Vice-President; and Karen Phelps, Secretary.

FBLA Gains Knowledge of Business World

Future Business Leaders of America was organized in 1950 to promote interest and understanding of the field of business.

FBLA members held their annual initiation for new members in the fall. Guest speaker at the initiation, Mrs. Vera Council, talked on the importance of understanding business and getting along with people in the business world.

Demonstrations on business machinery were presented to student members at the club meetings. Guest speakers gave interesting talks on the many branches of business in which opportunities and demands are greatest.

Senior Max Pardus presented a speech to FBLA members describing the pros and cons of opening a small independent place of business today. He presently owns a coin shop in Hobart.

FTA Offers Teaching Opportunities to Students

Future Teachers of America has been a beneficial organization to many Hobart students since 1953.

FTA was one of the first clubs of its type to give a substantial scholarship to a deserving Senior member.

Under the cadet teaching plan, Senior members of FTA are given an opportunity to dabble in the many phases of the field of education. The cadet teaching plan enables these students to partake in chosen classroom work, and to assist teachers in the field which the cadet is interested in entering.

Traditional mum corsages were sold by members of FTA for the football Homecoming to add capital to the scholarship fund.

At Back-to-School Night, members of FTA assisted teachers and parents by passing out educational literature and acting as ushers as they directed parents to classrooms.

Officers of Future Teachers of America are Midge Routes, treasurer; Sandy Caborn, vice-president;

Lynn Sheets, president; Shirley Kasonovich, secretary; and Robin Pauler, historian.

Although only in existence since 1963, the speech and Debate teams have made quite an impression on the students of the high school.

Outstanding accomplishments of last year's Debate team qualified them for membership in the national speech organization—National Forensic League.

Mr. Larry Weise, a member himself of the NFL, heads up these organizations in the position of coach.

This two-fold club has a two-fold purpose: to develop thought processes, speaking ability, and leadership ability; and a responsibility to represent the high school in interscholastic speech and debate competition throughout the state. Included in speech and debate meets are poetic readings and dramatic interpretation.

Speech and Debate teams work in conjunction with the Journalism Department to create an informative radio program pertaining to the activities and events at HHS. The radio program, sponsored by Hobart Chamber of Commerce, is broadcast every Thursday on Gary station, WWCA.

Artists Design Holiday Scenes, Paint Scenery

Above—Officers of the Art Club are Sandy Torch, vice-president; John Summers, president; Beverly Rearick, secretary, and Carol Rebeck, treasurer.

Painting scenery for drama class and A Cappella presentations during the year is the principle duty of the Art Club.

Painting lobby windows with the nativity scene and other Christmas scenes is an annual activity of the artists.

To provide a hobby and a bit of recreation for students interested in learning and creating are the main purposes of the organization.

With a small membership this year, Mrs. Cicak, advisor, had to cancel the charity dance which had taken place the last two years.

Maintaining the showcase at the bend in the east hall near the deans's offices is another responsibility of the Art Club.

Young Scientists Actively Pursue Knowledge

To increase student knowledge of science through films, field trips, discussions, demonstrations, student and faculty lectures, is the purpose of the Bi-Phy-Chem Science Club.

Since its re-activation in 1955, the club, led by Mr. Senderak, has remained one of the smaller organizations at HHS, but students from all the science areas in the high school—biology, physics, and chemistry—are taking a greater interest in this organization.

Annual dues of 25 cents and a one-year science course entitled the "mad scientists" to attend the field trips and films sponsored by the club.

Junior Keith Hoover performed a demonstration for the Science Club to acquaint students with radio apparatus and equipment available at HHS.

Debuteens Serve High School, Community, Area

Lending a helping hand to the needy is the basic principle on which the Hobart High School Debuteens revolves. These girls have worked to do what they can to serve the school and community for many years.

Cancer and Leukemia drives started off the year for the Debs. An annual bundle drive to collect clothing for the needy through the "Save the Children Foundation" was also sponsored by the Debuteens.

One of the major projects during the school year for members of the Debuteens was extending their help to Dee-Dee Klebon, a six-year-old Cerebral palsy victim. Debs visit Dee Dee at her home on week-ends and help her perform physical therapy exercises to build muscle tone.

With the careful guidance of sponsor, Mrs. Flora Cox, this all-girl service club organized various projects and helped with the Channel 11, Chicago Educational TV Station, Drive for the second year.

HHS Concert Band Notches 36th Straight First

Since 1930, Hobart's Concert Band has won 36 consecutive first division ratings at the state band contests.

Members of the band enjoyed an annual Senior Dinner and a band picnic at Dunes National Park. A special trip to Chicago was arranged for band students who made up the best rank in the high school Marching Band. During Spring vacation all members of the Concert Band enjoyed a tour to Indianapolis where they played a concert at Butler University and attended a rehearsal of the Indianapolis Symphony.

At the state high school band contests seven Hobart students were chosen by Dr. William Revelli, former band director at Hobart High, to play in the Indiana All-State High School Band.

Neal Nelson, Marianne Pantea, Gerry Gasche, Nancy Tidwell, Dallas Tidwell, and Judy Goodrich were chosen to represent Hobart.

Treble Choir Performs at Convos, Sings for Aged

Providing musical background for the Christmas, Thanksgiving, and Easter convos are some of the many activities of the A Cappella and Treble Choirs.

The big project of the A Cappella Choir this year was the presentation of the Gilbert-Sullivan operetta "The Mikado." The play was presented in the cafetorium, April 15 and 16. The male lead of Nanki-Poo was held by Terry Davis and Martha Lindsey portrayed Yum-Yum, the female lead.

During Easter vacation, students in the Treble Choir performed a concert at the Lake County Home for the Aged.

Members of the A Cappella choir, along with the students from six neighboring schools, participated in a choral festival held at Highland High School, March 4. All seven schools formed a mass choir and sang six selections. After the mass presentation, each individual choir sang two selections.

Officers for the Treble Choir are Maria Didonna, librarian; Janet Heard, student director; Sharon Chisnell, secretary-treasurer; Betty Hudson, robe mistress.

A Capella "Cream" Basis for Madrigals Group

Madrigals is an honorary choir consisting of students selected from the A Cappella Choir.

All members of A Cappella are eligible for membership in this organization. Annual vocal tryouts are held in the fall of each year. At that time Music Director Roland Ralph decides which students are to be members of Madrigals.

After being accepted for membership in Madrigals the other requirements of these students are attendance at rehearsals and participation in musical concerts and other engagements of the organization.

Members of Madrigals received a first place rating in the State Contests. Other activities of the organization included community Christmas concerts, civic entertainment, district contests, and music for the various holiday convocations held at HHS through the year.

Infant Home Ec Club Raises Funds for GI's

Front Row: M. Snyder, P. Sawyer, K. Phelps, M. West, M. Hinkle, J. Wesley. Row 2: J. Fasel, R. Fields, J. Duszczynski, D. Holder, P. Campano, S. Hinkle.

Acquainting students with the field of Home Economics is the main purpose of the new Home Economics Club.

Members of the Home Ec club sold five different types of cookbooks as a fund raising campaign.

Cookbooks on meats, vegetables, casseroles, salads, and desserts containing 2,000 favorite recipes of Home Economics teachers throughout the United States were sold during door-to-door canvassing.

Funds earned through this activity enabled these girls to buy cameras, tape recorders, transistor radios, and other items for American soldiers stationed in Viet Nam.

Letters of thanks were sent to the girls and their sponsor Mrs. Beveridge for their efforts to earn money to buy gifts for servicemen. One letter received from former Hobart Student, Perry Vannest, a marine stationed in Da-Nang, sent money to buy a cookbook. He also expressed his appreciation for the club's support.

Left—Officers of Home Economics Club are Jean Wesley, president; Mary Hinkle, treasurer; Pat Campano, vice-president; and Sue Hinkle, historian.

Audio-Visual Members Provide Vital Services

Caring for all projectors and tape recorders; providing all the sound equipment for convocations, the leadership conferences and the Mayor-Clerk conventions; and all-around knowledge and understanding of the equipment, is the job of the Audio-Visual Club.

Constant pradding of Advisar Boyd Scarborough keeps the members of Hobart's A-V Club on their toes and ready to assist at all times.

For example, the show "Mechanized Death", would not have been possible without the help of the Audio-Visual Club, nor would the prison convocation or the Judge Obermiller convocation.

Service to the club and to the school are the only requisites for membership. Annual activities are meetings for the members at which they learn the function and care of the equipment.

The Audio-Visual proves its worth everyday in the routine of student-faculty life and also helps to promote variety and add interest to the classroom routine.

Hobart Radio Enthusiasts Formulate New Club

One of the newest clubs in Hobart High School is the Amateur Radio Society. Organized in the fall of 1965 this relatively new club has steadily increased in membership through the school year.

Monthly dues of 25 cents and a sincere interest in the field of Electronics are the only membership requirements.

Call sign for the radio station, WA9QYZ, is used by the students when transmitting to different parts of the country.

At a regular meeting of the Radio Society former Senator Barry Goldwater was successfully contacted by a student member on the club's radio set.

Under the direction of Mr. John Allen, the activities of the club took place after school hours. These activities included transmitting and receiving on the school's radio apparatus.

Rules for the radio station are regulated by the Federal Communications Commission. The club's license for operation was approved and obtained in Washington DC.

PERSONALITY

Hobart's personality is made up of her students through studies, activities, sports, competition, and by getting along with others. Class pride has been promoted by such things as selling candy for the class treasury, dreaming up a first-place float, and wearing class sweaters and sweatshirts to school. The "Letters to the Editor" column in the newspaper and the Student Council suggestion box offered students a chance to voice their opinions. Many others took advantage of pep session skits, posters, and announcements over the public address system to display their creativity and imagination. Our Time is one of personality—and Hobart has it.

Seniors Chose Capable Leaders for '66 Events

Time was spent by Seniors participating in many events during their last year, '65-'66.

Education Day gave Seniors the chance to try their luck at teaching by taking over various classroom and administrative positions throughout the school system.

By turning back the clocks, Seniors were able to recall memories from the last twelve years at "School Daze", the theme of their last class party. Diona Bartholomew and Jeff Garmong were chosen as Queen and King.

Undergrads were taken advantage of during Senior Appreciation Week. Throughout this week, Seniors were given certain privileges reserved for their class only.

Seniors exercised political freedom by taking part in Government Day. City governmental positions were filled by various members of the Senior class. This experience helped them understand exactly how city government is run.

Seniors observed their traditional Sneak Day by participating in the annual outing at Dunes State Park.

Graduation, May 25, 1966, was the alpha and the omega, the beginning and end of an era for Seniors.

Left—Senior Class officers for year '65-'66 were Richard Anderson, president; Dawn Smeltzer, secretary; Mary Ellen Routes, treasurer; Diona Bartholomew, vice-president.

"School Daze" Dominates as Last Party Theme

Denise Council, Dione Bartholomew and Dolly
DeMeyer ponder over who's going to be "it" next.

Brightly the spotlight shone on the Junior Class during the 1965-66 school year. The class took all honors at the Football Homecoming.

Not only did the float win first place in the competition, but Junior Linda Hamilton was crowned queen and reigned over the game and dance. Junior Debby Blank was chosen as the Basketball Homecoming Queen.

Planning the Junior-Senior Prom was the main event on the Junior social list. Other events included the class party which was held in February. Linda Hamilton and Doug Fitzgerald were chosen as King and Queen.

Phil Stafford and David Walker were chosen as the Purple and Gold candidates, respectively, for the Mayor and Clerk elections.

The class motto is "Build for Character, Not Fame." Class colors are navy blue and gold. The class flower is a red rose.

Sophomores began their first year at the high school by taking second place honors with their float for the Football Homecoming celebrations.

Selling candy to raise money for next year's Junior-Senior Prom was their second big project.

Kathy Wilmoth represented the Class of 1968 as Basketball Queen candidate. Candidates from each class were chosen by the basketball team with the final vote for queen by the entire student body.

Clerk-treasurer candidates for the 1966-67 school year were chosen. Roberta Halvorsen and Mary Hinkle were selected in March.

Selection of class rings is also a Sophomore class project. A committee for this was headed by the class officers.

"Labor Conquers All", is the class motto. Colors for the class of '68 are red and white, while the flower is a tea rose.

ADS AND INDEX

Changes are constantly being made to make Hobart a better place in which to live. HHS students were given a chance to become a part of this change by participating in Government Day. Seniors took advantage of their positions as city officials by passing an ordinance to have sidewalks built near all Hobart schools. Several resolutions they made for civic improvements included a cleanup of Lake George. The building of a flood gate on the lake was the first step taken toward this goal. Other improvements made this year include the remodeling of the Hobart post office as well as the many apartment buildings, churches, and stores that are springing up to change our city's appearance. Through these changes Hobart surely shows the progressive spirit of Our Time.

An open book can open doors

In our recruiting we ask that applicants have completed their High School education. That's because we try always to fill higher, more responsible jobs from the ranks of our employees. And the records show—the better the employee's education, the better he is at his job—and the better he does for himself.

Inland employees continue to gain knowledge and experience in special trades through formal apprenticeship programs offered in the following trades—Machinist, Patternmaking, Boilermaking, Welding, Shop Electrician, Wireman, Mason and Pipefitter.

Many concentrate on certain phases of steelmaking by working in production while others work in laboratories helping to assure quality or developing new and better products for our customers.

How about you? Inland Steel is steadily expanding. More and more opportunities will be open to you as our growth continues. Are you ready?

Mr. Mark Popovich

This is your 1966 MEMORIES. We have worked long and hard to put it together for you.

As the 1966 yearbook staffers we learned to work both individually and as a unit in creating harmony of layout, copy, pictures, and headlines throughout the book. We experienced not only the urgency of meeting deadlines, the importance of accurate copy, and the necessity of clear, well-chosen pictures but also the weariness of tedious hours of work, the relief of finishing the final spread, and the feeling of pride upon seeing the finished yearbook.

Many hours were spent outside class time in gathering and preparing material to send to our publisher, the Newsfoto Publishing Company in San Angelo, Texas. Each event recorded within these pages has been carefully portrayed so as not to lose its original impression. These original impressions are a set of traits that make up the personality of Hobart High. With the help of our photographic consultant, the Gary Camera Company, and Victor Rothschild of the Victor Studio in Gary the laughter, disappointments, solemnity, and excitement that is HHS has been captured here for your enjoyment. Our green and ivory covers were made by the Universal Cover Company in San Antonio, Texas. A great deal of credit goes to Mr. Dick Kennard, our yearbook consultant, who helped us tremendously on many of the problems we encountered throughout the year. We have sincerely worked to make this a distinctive publication that reflects the character and awareness of OUR TIME.

Photo Credits

We would like to thank the Gary POST-TRIBUNE for allowing us to publish the picture of the Beatles in the introduction—especially photographer Bill Benoit. And to Wide World Photos, Inc., our thanks for permission to publish the pictures of boot camp and of the South Bend demonstration—also in the introduction.
